Modplan gains Secured by Design accreditation for its VEKA vertical sliding windows

Leading Trade fabricator Modplan has just announced it has achieved Secured by Design accreditation for its VEKA vertical sliding windows. Modplan's Managing Director, Heidi Sachs, said, "Secured by Design accreditation is important because it proves a product can meet the requirements of Document Q. It also gives homeowners peace of mind that the products are secure. We are confident it will help our customers to close more vertical sliding window sales."

The accreditation on the VEKA vertical sliding windows brings the number of Modplan products that have achieved it to ten. The other products are the VEKA Imagine bifolding door, the VEKA Imagine patio door, the VEKA Matrix 70mm door, the VEKA Matrix Fully Sculptured 70mm door, the VEKA Matrix 70mm window, the VEKA Matrix 58mm casement window, the VEKA 70mm Fully Sculptured casement and tilt / turn window, the VEKA Matrix 58mm tilt / turn window and the VEKA Matrix 70mm tilt / turn window.

Heidi was also keen to celebrate the teamwork that was involved in securing the accreditation. "Secured by Design proves the high security standard of a product, which is why it is one route to compliance with the requirements of Document Q. What it means in practice is that achieving the accreditation meant a great deal of effort by system supplier VEKA, our hardware suppliers and our own in-house team. I'd like to thank them for all their work and assure them we are confident their efforts will be reflected in product sales.”
